

Senior Editor Application 2023 California Yearbook Academy

(If selected, you must arrive Sunday, July 9th and stay through Thursday, July 13th for clean up)

Being selected as a senior editor at the California Yearbook Academy is both an honor and a privilege. SE duties may include assisting teachers during class time, running errands, supervising dorms and doing bed checks at night. If all duties are performed satisfactorily, you will be financially compensated. Your room and meals will also be paid for during the workshop.

Applicants with the following qualifications will be considered:

- Energetic, outgoing and enthusiastic
- Able to work under pressure and meet deadlines (as exhibited by your performance as a high school yearbook staffer or editor)
- Good academic standing at school
- High school graduate
- Mature and professional
- Gets along extremely well with both peers and adults
- Demonstrates leadership capabilities
- Ability to work with minimal supervision
- Ability to follow directions with respect to authority

Please fill out the information below as thoroughly as possible and return by mail or email by April 15. Please include a photo for our camp website. We will contact you after April 15.
